

House Resolution No. 2597

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding young Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Jessica Adutwum of Kansas City, Missouri, will receive the prestigious 2004 Lieutenant Governor's Service Award during an appropriate ceremony to be held in conjunction with Missouri Service Day on May 10, 2005, at the Missouri State Capitol in Jefferson City; and

Whereas, Jessica Adutwum is one of only a handful of participants who will be recognized for their significant contributions to service and to their local community with awards in each age category as fellow citizens, young and old, gather at the statehouse to support their work and to praise their achievements; and

Whereas, nominees for the 2004 Lieutenant Governor's Service Awards must be active members of their community and participants or members of national service programs such as AmeriCorps, Senior Corps/VISTA, and Learn & Serve America; and

Whereas, Jessica Adutwum has been an active and enthusiastic participant in the Learn and Serve America program for seven years, during which time she has dedicated nearly 1,000 hours to service-learning projects for Harvesters, St. Vincent's Day Care, Don Bosco Center, the Community Assistance Council, Project FAITH, and a teen driver project; and

Whereas, an exemplary student at Hickman Mills High School who has attended the Kansas City Peace Jam Conference and has presented at the National Service-Learning Conference all four years of high school, Jessica Adutwum has achieved all of this and more with the love and support of her proud parents, Doris and Edward Adutwum of Kansas City:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Jessica Adutwum at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Jessica Adutwum.
